DRUMMER

SCN is a total package when it comes to combining a hard hitting steady back beat with pure entertainment value.

Shane has been a driving force who has “been there, done that” in the music industry from studio session work and playing live. His vast experience has taken him from playing smaller intimate settings, private corporate events to being a veteran on the festival scene.

Currently Shane plays drums in The Arena Rock Circus band as well and sitting in on various Live and Studio sessions.

There isn't anything that SCN hasn't taken on which is evident in his confidence and ability.
